Re: United States v. Joseph Malvasio
23 Cr. 396 (JGLC)

Dear Judge Clarke:

Since August 10, 2023, defendant Joseph Malvasio ("Malvasio") has been at liberty on a $1,000,000 secured bond that contains numerous conditions including a restriction of his travel to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York and the Southern District of Florida. During the entire 18 months of his pretrial supervision, he has been fully compliant with all of the conditions of his release. Mr. Malvasio's trial, currently scheduled for May 27, 2025, is very likely to be adjourned for an extended amount of time to allow his newly indicted co-defendant to review the voluminous discovery in this case and for Malvasio to prepare his defense for newly added charges thereby lengthening his pretrial supervision. As a result, Malvasio respectfully requests that his travel condition be expanded to permit him to travel in the continental United States so long as he provides reasonable advance notice to Probation/Pretrial Services ("Pretrial"). The government, by Assistant United States Attorney Jaclyn Delligatti and Pretrial, by United States Probation Officer Nelson Valenzuela, consent to this application.

Thank you for Your Honor's consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,
